They may be cast with puppets, pets or people. In other words, let your creativity guide you.

2. Entrants in the contest must have been a high school, college undergraduate or graduate student during the 2017-18 academic year. You must indicate on your entry form the name of your institution and your class year.

4. To be considered, films and videos must be no longer than five minutes. Works must be shot in widescreen format and submitted as an MP4 file.

5. Entrants retain the copyright to their work. However, you must agree to grant JASNA and JASNA-Southwest the right to screen your submission at one of our regional meetings, on the JASNA and JASNA-Southwest website, our YouTube channel, and through other video-sharing sites and social media.

6. The creators of each submission are responsible for obtaining all required waivers, permissions and consents:

- Parents or legal guardians for filmmakers under 18 years of age must sign the consent section of the entry form. Signed consents from parents or legal guardians must also be obtained on behalf of any cast or crew members under 18.
- Filmmakers and cast members 18 and older also must sign the consent section of the entry form.
- Any music used must be royalty-free (be aware that performances of public domain works might carry their own copyrights) or legally obtained with proof of permission, which must be included with your entry form and submission.
- No brands, logos, people's likenesses or buildings, art or other works that would require legal clearance or signed waivers to be shown may be included unless written permission is obtained from the individuals or intellectual property owners involved.

7. On the entry form, please indicate who on the filmmaking team will be the designated contact person and representative (listed as lead filmmaker) should your submission be chosen as a winner.

10. Submit your completed, high-resolution short film or video electronically — along with your signed entry form and any required waivers or permissions — to jasnasw@jasnasw.com via a service capable of sending large files, such as wetransfer.com or yousendit.com. Or upload to Dropbox, Box or Google Drive and send a link to jasnasw@jasnasw.com. You will receive an email acknowledgment that your film has been successfully delivered.

The Jane Austen Society of North America reserves the right to award fewer than three winners if we receive an insufficient number of qualified submissions.
